

TRANSPORTATION INFORMATION

Saint Joseph Notre Dame High School is located in the East Bay on the island of Alameda, about four miles south of downtown Oakland. There is easy access to the school from various points within the Bay Area.

Driving

Saint Joseph Notre Dame is easily accessible from Highways 880, 980 and 580. There are three exits from Hwy 880 into Alameda – exits 23rd Avenue, Fruitvale and High Street – and three corresponding bridges from Oakland into Alameda. Drivers can also take the Webster Tube from Oakland to Alameda.

BART

The nearest BART stop to the SJND campus is the Fruitvale station. Two bus lines (#51 and #63) have stops within a short walking distance to the campus. The SJND reception desk sells discounted BART tickets to students.

Buses

AC Transit offers bus service throughout the city of Alameda and direct routes from points in Alameda and Berkeley and transfer service from Castro Valley, San Leandro and Hayward. The most commonly used bus lines are #50, #51 and #63.

